MARC G. NOCHIMSON : TAX PLANNING MADE EASY

by marccom · Leave a Comment

Marc G. Nochimson is an expert at tax planning, tax preparation, and other related audit services in New Jersey. He is the partner in Friedman LLC, one of the best attorney firms in New Jersey since 2005. Marc is known for his charisma and able leadership at the firm for so many years. His clients are so delighted at the professional knowledge he brings forward in their discussions. For the residents of Marlton, Marc is the in-house auditor for many decades. His vast experience in myriad audit practices is widely requested from individuals, and local firms. Marc is a certified public accountant licensed to practice audit in states of Maryland, Delaware, New York, and New York. His client base includes members from all these regions, and their engagement with Marc is strong over the years. Marc is also respected for the service he offers to the client with regular interaction on key issues, and updates them on the changes in the audit & tax planning with great care. The sophistication of the audit practices outlined in the GAAP, and the new Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (PCAOB) require professional help in interpretation.

The failure in audit practices led to the downfall of Enron, and other global corporations, which disturbed the world economy. The interests of the shareholders were not protected, and the Sarbanes Oxley Act of 2002 introduced a new regime of audit principles under the non-profit agency PCAOB. Marc leads the compliance division at Friedman LLC, and oversees the auditors following the new audit practices. The level of competency this position requires is high, and Marc deals with the operations of all the firm clients to educate them on the provisions of the PCAOB regulations. Marc is consulted from clients on a regular basis for his expertise in the PCAOB compliance regulations, and is responsible for zero tolerance policy of the associates.

Marc lives in Marlton, New Jersey for the last few years and has been an active member in the community events. He is member of JCC, and been a strong advocate of their activities with presence at the prestigious Katz JCC Sports Awards dinner held in New Jersey. Marc is well-known in the auditor networks, and go-to person for all the tax preparation procedures. His involvement with few pro-bono community projects in the region is well respected. Please reach to Marc at Friedman LLC firm for any more information.
